Two Arrests in an Eco-Terrorism Case

The Portland, Oregon FBI's Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) made two arrests on Tuesday, August 13, 2002, related to a domestic terrorism case. JTTF members arrested JACOB DAVID BARDWELL SHERMAN, age 20, and JEREMY DAVID ROSENBLOOM, age 25, this morning in connection with the arson attack at the Ray Schoppert Logging Company on June 1, 2001. A federal grand jury has returned an indictment relating to the Schoppert arson against JACOB DAVID BARDWELL SHERMAN, ANGELA MARIE CESARIO, JEREMY DAVID ROSENBLOOM and MICHAEL J. SCARPITTI. The JTTF is attempting to locate ANGELA MARIE CESARIO, age 23, and MICHAEL J. SCARPITTI a/k/a TRF ARROW, age 28.

Michael Mosman, United States Attorney for the District of Oregon; Hardy Myers, Oregon Attorney General; Charles Mathews III, Special Agent in Charge of the FBI in Oregon; Mark Kroeker, Chief of the Portland Police Bureau; Ron Ruecker, Superintendent of the Oregon State Police; David Bishop, Chief of the Beaverton Police Department; Carson Carroll, Special Agent in Charge of the Seattle Division of ATF; Craig Magill, Special Agent in Charge of the U.S. Bureau of Land Management; and Tom Lyons, Special Agent in Charge of the U.S. Forest Service, made the announcement on Tuesday.

Members of the JTTF made both of the arrests Tuesday morning without incident. SHERMAN, ROSENBLOOM, CESARIO, and SCARPITTI each face four counts for damaging vehicles and other property used in interstate commerce, for obstructing the movement of commodities in interstate commerce (Hobbs Act), for using violence to interfere with commerce (Hobbs Act) and using an incendiary device to commit an act of violence. If convicted on all counts, each person could face a fine of up to $1 million dollars or up to 80 years in federal prison or both. Given a plea agreement or conviction at trial, it would be the responsibility of the federal judge presiding over these cases to determine punishment.

SHERMAN and ROSENBLOOM are currently in custody, awaiting their initial appearances before United States Magistrate Jelderks at 1:30 p.m. today.

In addition to the arrests, JTTF members served a search warrant at SHERMAN's current residence, 7015 SE 39th Avenue, Portland, Oregon.

The arson at Schoppert Logging Company caused about $50,000 in damage. The June, 1, 2001 fire destroyed one truck and damaged two others. The trucks were sitting in front of the company's building on Highway 224 near Estacada when the fire broke out about 2:40 a.m. No person or group claimed responsibility for the fire. Schoppert Logging was under contract to start logging in the Eagle Creek area of the Mount Hood National Forest the very day of the attack.

→ Investigators have noted similarities in physical evidence found at the scene of the Schoppert fire and evidence found at the scene of the attack against Ross Island Sand and Gravel in Portland on April 15, 2001. The Earth Liberation Front (ELF) claimed responsibility for the Ross Island attack via a press release. This arson, which happened on Easter morning, destroyed three trucks and caused more than $200,000 in damage. The investigation into the Ross Island attack continues.

The FBI considers ELF a domestic terrorism group and both arsons to be acts of domestic terrorism. Today's arrests are the first for the JTTF relating to "eco-terrorism" investigations in Oregon. In addition to the Schoppert Logging Company and Ross Island Sand and Gravel arsons, the JTTF is investigating the following incidents considered acts of domestic terrorism:

- 10/28/96 U.S. Forest Service vehicle arson and Detroit Ranger Station vandalism, $20,000 in damages, Detroit, OR (no claim)
- 10/30/96 U.S. Forest Service Ranger Station arson fire, Oakridge, OR (no claim)
- 7/21/97 Cavel West (horse meat packing company) arson, $1.4 million in damages, Redmond, OR (Animal Liberation Front claim)
- 11/29 - 11/30/97 Bureau of Land Management Wild Horse and Burro Corral, arson and release of 400 horses, $350,000 in damages, Burns, OR (ALF claim)
- 12/27/98 U.S. Forest Industries arson, $500,000 in damages, Medford, OR (ELF claim)
- 5/9/99 Childers Meat Company arson, $500,000 in damages, Eugene, OR (ALF claim)
- 12/25/99 Boise Cascade office arson, $1 million in damages, Monmouth, OR (ELF claim)
- 6/4-6/5/00 Pure Seed Testing vandalism, $300,000-$500,000 in damages, Canby, OR (Anarchist Golfing Association claim)

- 9/6/00 Eugene Police Department Substation arson fire, Eugene, OR (no claim)
- 1/2/01 Superior Lumber Company, arson fire, $400,000 in damages, Glendale, OR (ELF claim)
- 3/30/01 Romania Chevrolet arson fire, $1 million in damages, Eugene, OR (no claim, ELF publicly supported)
- 5/21/01 Jefferson Poplar Farms arson, $500,000 in damages, Clatskanie, OR (ELF claim)

The Joint Terrorism Task Force includes 13 agencies: The Federal Bureau of Investigation; the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; the Drug Enforcement Administration; the Immigration and Naturalization Service; the Internal Revenue Service; the U.S. Postal Service; the U.S. Secret Service; the U.S. Marshals Service; the U.S. Department of Agriculture; the U.S. Customs Service; the Oregon State Police; the Portland Police Bureau; and the Beaverton Police Department.

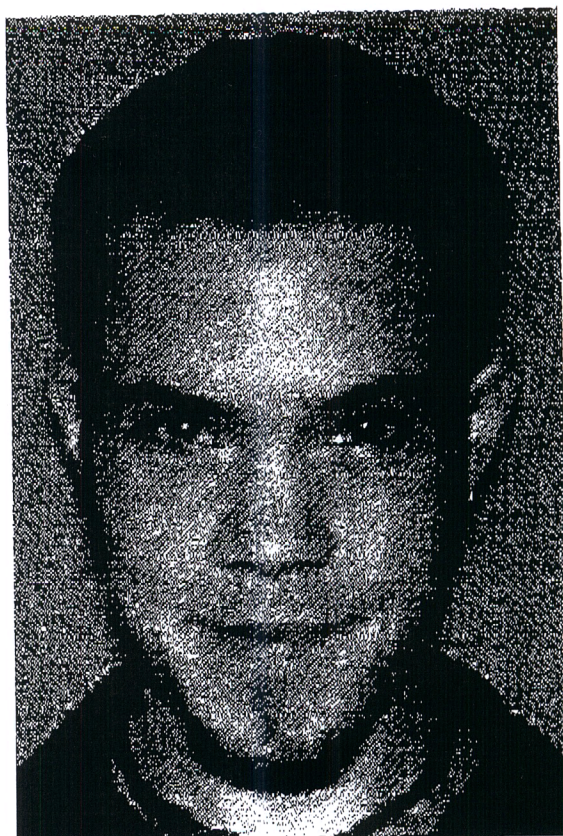

Anyone with information concerning the Ross Island attack or any other terrorism incident is encouraged to contact the JTTF at (503) 224-4181.

These charges are only an accusation of the crime. These defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
